

Resident Councils of Washington

SNEAK Preview RCW Seminars 2009-2010

"Modular Education Program for Activity Professionals"

The MEPAP is designed to prepare entry-level participants, ethically and effectively, to meet the leisure needs and interests of residents in long-term care facilities

Guidelines/ applications for certification are available through NCCAP, National Certification Council for Activity Professionals
757-552-0653 www.nccap.org

RCW is complying with new standards from the National Certification Council for Activity Professionals. RCW presents the MEPAP as one continuous program divided into five 36-hour sessions

Wednesday through Saturday - Renton Methodist Church

Super Day Wednesday: 8:30 am - 9:30 p.m.

Thursday, Friday, and Saturday: 8:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.

2009

Block V Jan. 28 - 31
Block I March 25 - 28
Block II May 27 - 30
Block III Oct. 7 - 10
Block IV Nov. 4 - 7

2010

Block V Jan. 27 - 30
Block I March 24 - 27
Block II May 26 - 29
Block III Oct. 6 - 9
Block IV Nov. 3 - 6

"Basic Social Services Class"

May 6 & 7, 2010 Day One = Role of Social services in long-term care, Regulations that guide Social Services, Interdisciplinary Team Work, Assessments, Individualized Care Planning, Documentation, PASSAR screening

Day Two = Behavioral Management, Psychotropic Medications, Psychiatric Conditions, (Mood, Psychotic, Cognitive, Personality) Disorders, Discharge Planning, Family Issues and Community Resources

Annual Activity Seminar - July 16, 2009

"Resident Councils' Answers to Culture Change"
King County Long Term Care Ombudsmen Office
Solid Ground 1501 North 45th St. Seattle

Details: www.residentcouncil.org payment: www.residentcouncilstore.org